THE NEW STYLES IN BATHING COSTUMES

The unsightly garments of other days have given way to designs which are not only beautiful but more practical.

Women who enjoy swimming where only women and girls are congregated are most comfortable in little knitted one-piece swimming suits which have no ruffles, no sleeves, and which may be donned without garters and corsets.

This suit is of cherry colored taffeta, with beruffled tunic, bloomers and bodice. The tunic is merely a sop to Madam Grundy and makes no attempt to hide the ruffled knickers. A collar of white batiste, the cap, and reticule all tend to make the costume more elaborate.

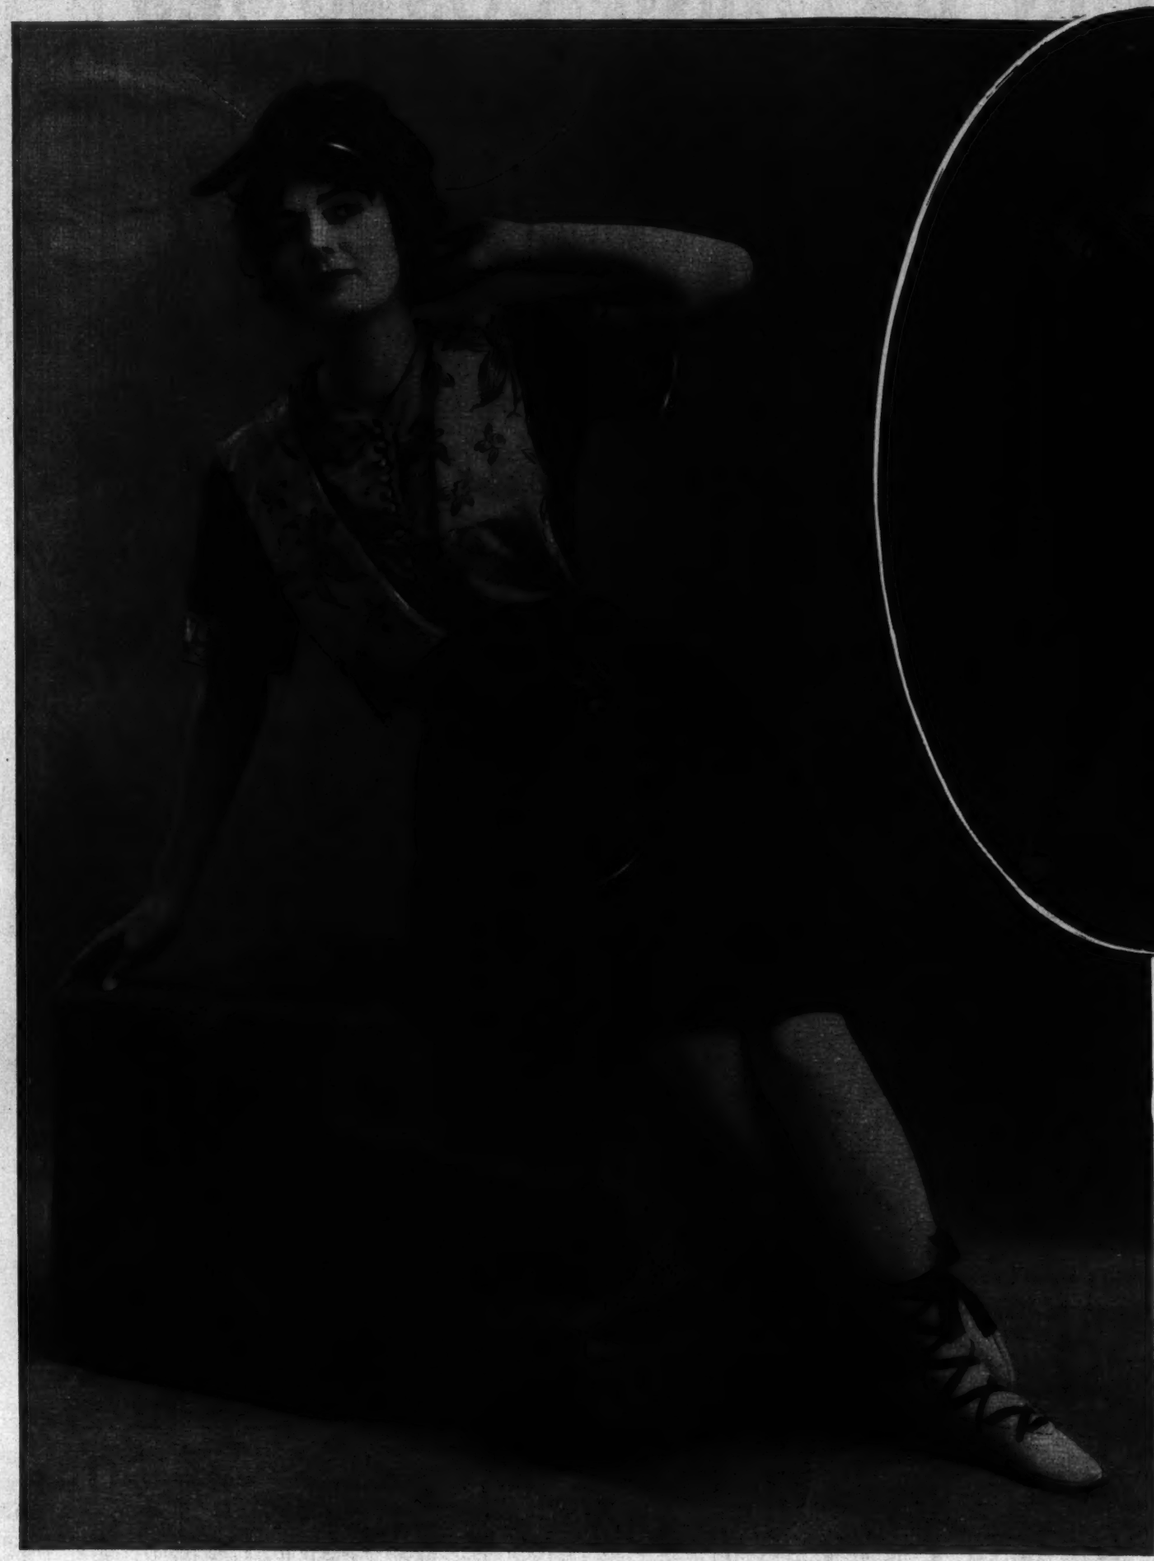
(Photos by Joel Feder.)

All the ultra smart bathing suits have beruffled skirts. Some of them have wired Medici collars as well. This suit of copper colored pussy willow taffeta has also a shaped girdle that suggests a waistcoat.

For camp wear the one-piece suit of black mohair is serviceable. The suit pictured is of black mohair trimmed with striped silk.

This bathing suit is of stone blue pussy willow taffeta with polka dotted silk trimming. The cap is made of the same materials.

The New York Times



Quite different from the ruffled suit of the moment is this Peter Pan model of purple satin which is trimmed with white braid. A sort of coat of black and white check worsted is thrown over the shoulders and adds charm to the picture.

A smart bathing costume en suite trimmed with Roman stripe silk is pictured. The reticule and cap are of Roman stripe silk, while the suit shows deep revers, cuffs and an insert on the skirt of the striped silk.

This is a pretty bathing suit for a young girl. The dark skirt is piped with rose silk and the plainness relieved by rose silk covered buttons. The revers are of rose colored brocade, while the vest is of rose colored pussy willow taffeta.

This model is made of blue waterproof satin and built on the new redingote lines. A loose girdle of plaid silk encircles the waist and is tied in a loose sailor knot in front.

Wool jersey swimming suit of bright green trimmed with white silk. The skirt is slashed to reveal laced bloomers.

Even with her bathing costume the modern maid wears her "beau-catcher" curls, and (just a whisper) the curls are attached to the bathing cap. The suit pictured is of black satin with a tie and trimmings of bright plaid silk.

The New York Times

Brilliant maxixe silk combined with dark satin is a Summer bathing fad, and stockings to match the predominating color of the brilliant silk are worn with the costume. In this instance the silk is of rose blue on a green ground, green being the predominating color.

The woman who dislikes striking effects will fancy this conservative and pretty bathing suit of navy blue salt water satin with trimming of white tango crepe on the bodice. The Gladstone collar, turning away from a square-cut neck, gives special style to the costume.

Hunter green satin is combined with American beauty brocade in this beach suit. The skirt, although built on narrow lines, is wide enough to allow free action.

The slashed skirt, Van Dyke pointed tunic and narrow yoke of this taffeta bathing costume are very modern. Jet buttons and a girdle of pompadour silk trim the suit.

A novelty for the girl who swims is this bathing suit of black satin. The skirt may be tied up into a tunic, thereby allowing freer action. The suit is trimmed with Roman stripe taffeta.

Black and white pussy willow satin trims this pretty model of black waterproof satin.

The New York Times

A new model of black satin, with the latest tunic effect, piping and red buttons giving it a smart appearance.

The new surplice waist of black and white striped satin attached to a plain skirt of the same material. The cap is made to match the waist.

The plaid waist with vest effect worn over a plain black satin skirt. The butterfly on the cap is a charming touch.

Simple lines make this suit of black taffeta attractive. Collar, cuffs and hem on skirt are of contrasting color.

A young debutante whose clothes are very much copied recently appeared at Narragansett wearing this trim little suit of black satin trimmed with cyclamen pink pussy willow silk. The girdle is boned to give a trim fit at the waist.

One of the newest bathing accessories is a coat of Turkish toweling, with loose sleeves and big buttons.

PARKER'S METHODS OF HAIR TREATMENT

Special care of the hair at the seashore or mountain should be taken during the summer; neglect may lead to serious complications. My hair treatment stops falling hair quickly. It feeds and strengthens the hair roots — makes the scalp healthy, puts vigor into scanty, dry, brittle, faded hair, gives it splendid gloss and makes it abundant and healthful.

JANE COWL SAYS
Dear Mr. Parker:—Let me thank you for the most beneficial treatments my hair has ever had. All good wishes to you.

HERBEX makes the HAIR HEALTHY, keeps the scalp clean, cool, making the hair soft and fluffy. 50c bottle. Ask for Book, "Healthy Hair."
